DEPARTMENT HEAD REPORTS

Ambulance- Wayne Laswell

Wayne discussed the billing software and clearing house. They will not be able to bill for 60 days due to the current software expiring. EMS had a Christmas party and everyone had a good time. They are working on the Timeclock system being utilized. Wayne is also working on the CPR certifications. He is working on getting the urinalysis to be taken at the health department.

Sheriff- Andrew Krout

Aaron Fruits asked Denise Crowder what her concerns were with this change. She stated money was short everywhere. She also stated they can work short, but is that safe and best for taxpayers? Overtime for Dispatch and EMS is already short.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Carol Owens questioned holidays. The day after Christmas was a holiday this year. Carol also wanted to know if the Commissioner's watched the last Council meeting on 12/30/25. She wanted to know why they do not attend Council meetings. Aaron Fruits stated he hadn't had a chance yet, but will. He said they do have joint meetings once a month to keep communication open with both the Commissioners and Council. Carol also said it appears Wayne is doing a good job as EMS director.

Larry Schrock asked about AT&T. He said there may be different fiber optic internet available.

Jason Lewis stated he will take the bids and do a bid calculation to let everyone, including bidders know status.

THE NEXT REGULAR MEETING WILL BE TUESDAY
January 20, 2025
AT 6:00 P.M.

A motion was made by Tim Shumaker and seconded by KW Rice to close the meeting.
